

Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information

This notice describes how your personal health information may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information.

Please review it carefully.

With your consent, Cottonwood Dental Care, PA is permitted by federal privacy laws to make uses and disclosures of your health information for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations. Protected health information is the information we create and obtain in providing our services to you. Such information may include documenting our symptoms, examination and test results, diagnosis, treatment, and applying for future care or treatment. It also includes billing documents for those services.

Your Health Information Rights

The health record and billing records we maintain are the physical property of the practice. The information in it, however, belongs to you. You have a right to:

- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of our health information by delivering the request in writing to our office. We are not required to grant the request but will comply with any request granted.
- Obtain a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information (“Notice”) by making a request at our office.
- Request that you be allowed to inspect and copy your health record and billing record—you may exercise this right by delivering the request in writing to our office.
- Appeal a denial of access to your protected health information except in certain circumstances.
- Request that your health care record be amended to correct incomplete or incorrect information by delivering a written request to our office.
- File a statement of disagreement if your amendment is denied, and require that the request for amendment is denied, and require that the request for amendment and any denial be attached in all future disclosures of our protected health information.
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information a required to be maintained by law by delivering a written request to our office. An accounting will not include internal uses of information for treatment, payment, or operations, disclosures made to you or made at your request, or disclosures made to family members of friends in the course of providing care.
- Request that communication of your health information be made by alternative means or at an alternative location by delivering the request in writing to our office.
- Revoke authorizations that you made previously to use or disclose information except to the extent information or action has already been taken by delivering a written revocation to our office.

You have the right to review this Notice before signing the consent authorizing use and disclosure of your protected health information for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes.

Our Responsibilities

The practice is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information as required by law.
- Provide you with a notice of our duties and privacy practices as to the information we collect and maintain about you.
- Abide by the terms of this Notice
- Notify you if we cannot accommodate a requested restriction or request; and accommodate your reasonable requests regarding methods to communicate health information with you.
- We reserve the right to amend, change, or eliminate provisions in our privacy practices and access practices and to enact new provisions regarding the protected health information we maintain. If our information practices change, we will amend our Notice. You are entitled to receive a revised copy of the Notice by calling and requesting a copy of our Notice or by visiting our office and picking up a copy.

To Request Information or File a Complaint

If you have questions, would like additional information, or want to report a problem regarding the handling of your information, you may contact Jodi Clark. Additionally, if you believe our privacy rights have been violated, you may file a written complaint at our office and deliver it to Jodi Clark.

We cannot, and will not, require you to waive the right to file a complaint with the office as a condition of receiving treatment from the practice. We cannot, and will not, retaliate against you for filing a complaint with the receptionist.

Other Disclosures and Uses

Notification

Unless you object, we may use or disclose your protect health information (PHI) to notify, or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative, or other person responsible for your care, about your location, and about your general condition, or your death.

Communication

Using our best judgment, we may disclose to a family member, other relative, close personal friend, or any other person you identify, health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care or in payment for such care if you do not object or in case of an emergency.

Food and Drug Administration (FDA)

We may disclose to the FDA your PHI relating or adverse events with respect to products and product defects or post marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacements.
